

BRIT Awards 2014

Qdos Event Hire, the event industry's leading provider of event accommodation and toilets, was appointed to provide cabins, luxury toilets and waste tanks to the BRIT Awards for the third year in succession.

The contract was awarded by Brit Awards Production Ltd and saw Qdos supply their cabins for use as production offices and hospitality areas for backstage and the after-show party. They also supplied a range of their luxury toilets to support the existing facilities in-house at the venue. In addition they to installing tanks for catering waste.

The 2014 BRIT Awards, widely regarded as the biggest event in the British music industry's calendar, was held on 19 February 2014, held at The O2 Arena in London, with James Corden presenting. Big winners on the night included the Arctic Monkeys and One Direction.

"This is the third year that we have been involved with the BRIT Awards and I'm delighted to say that we supplied more equipment this time round. The BRITs is a prestigious event that attracts huge interest from the media, the Music Industry and the general public and we are really pleased to have played our part in its smooth running and overall success." Nigel Brice, CEO, QDOS Event Hire