

Decorex 2015

During September Decorex International, the renowned four day design show took place at Syon Park in London. The exhibition is synonymous with luxury and the place to discover the very best, and most coveted products from an unrivalled collection of 400 hand-selected exhibitors.

Qdos Event Hire was delighted to supply high quality, temporary accommodation for this event and provided ten open plan cabins from their extensive range for this elite event. These included 12', 24', 32' cabins that were utilised as an organiser's office, health and safety office, event management office, storage facilities and access control cabin.

All of the units include innovative features as standard, including adjustable partitioning and picture windows. The cabins can be easily installed and once connected to the electrics become immediately ready to use.

Qdos also supplied two deluxe sleepers which provided comfortable and stylish overnight accommodation including en-suite facilities.

decorex